

Wichita Southeast HS (KS) SBE Best Practice Advisor – Lynne King
lking@usd259.net

Store Managers have a supervisory/management role in the area of human relations. They are responsible for evaluating and discussing the evaluation of other student employees in the Buff Stop. They have to rank the employees skill level and performance in the store. Since implementation of this evaluation instrument, the Student Managers have adjusted the training that occurs with student employees. This responsibility is one taken seriously with the managers; they learn to give constructive criticism to their peers.